

Day Trip

The trip this year promises to be a colorful one as we travel to Quechee, VT, to Simon Pearse, celebrated artist and glassblower. As a young man, Simon was raised in Ireland, learned pottery and then studied glassblowing in London and the Netherlands. He opened his first shop in 1971 in Kilkenny, Ireland. Seeking independence from European business constraints, he moved his operation to Quechee, VT, where he completed a historic renovation of an old woolen mill. Today, visitors can view the hydroelectric turbine, interact with the team of glassblowers, watch potters at work and, shop and enjoy meal in the restaurant.

While in Vermont we will enjoy a fabulous mid-day meal at the Glassblower Café.

We will return traveling through the hills of New Hampshire as we return for dinner at Pilgrim Pines.

Pilgrim Pines

Pilgrim Pines, located in beautiful Southern New Hampshire, is dedicated to providing fantastic programs for people of all ages. From our children's and youth camp, to our men's and women's conferences, the goal is the same - to create exciting experiences, memorable moments, and a safe place to meet God. Whether it is through our faith-stretching ropes course, worship and teaching, unforgettable camp activities, or simply relaxing by the lake, a camping experience at Pilgrim Pines provides a breath of fresh air in the midst of our hectic world.

Fall Foliage Retreat
October 11-14, 2010

History & The Holy Land
with our speaker,
Rev. Johnny Agurkis

Fall Foliage

2010

Our Speaker for our time together will be:
Rev Johnny Agurkis

Rev. Johnny Agurkis has served Covenant congregations in Libertyville (IL) and Roseville (MN), and for the last 10 years, the Covenant Congregational Church of North Easton, MA. Raised in the West Peabody (MA) Covenant church, Johnny spent seven summers on staff at Camp Squanto, most of those as Program Director. He has a real passion for connecting everyday life to the Christian walk of faith. In addition to speaking and consulting, Johnny has traveled to the Holy Land twice, last leading a pilgrimage group in 1999, and has a deep love of the land that is central to the scriptural narrative. Married to Ann (McNaughton) for 15 years, they have 4 beautiful children.
